NEW LOGO & BIG CHANGES

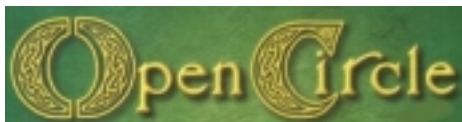

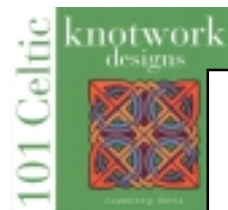

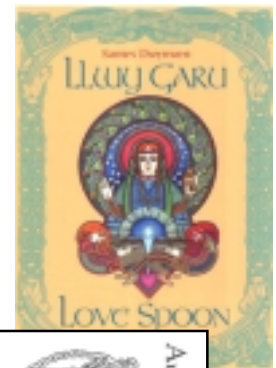

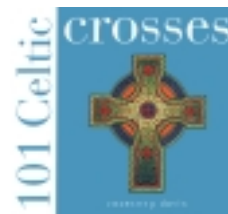

I apologise for the lack of newsletters this year but I have been so busy completing two new books as well as squeezing in two promotional trips to the States this year. Whilst I was in the States in April I attended the Irish Show in New Jersey and signed books at the Best of Europe stand who are wholesaling and retailing many of the products which use my art including, Seren (jewellery, prints and love spoons) Eurostick (cards, decals and key rings) Glass masters (stained glass), Stonebridge (pottery mugs), Quality Crafts (oak carved cards) my latest books can be ordered from them and will all be signed and they have produced their own range of 50 fridge magnets. There will be a range of Mountain t-shirts available in the autumn and also a selection of bed throws from Open Circle, we are also in negotiation with Tree Free cards. The new Best of Europe website is being updated regularly with new products and information about my future trips to the States. You can view their site at

Michael McGloin, Art Director of Mountain t-shirts at the studio in New Hampshire. I hope to re-visit them in September and work with Michael on new designs.

I was in discussion with Open Circle in July for them to produce four or more bed spread designs plus the possibility of other fabric lines in the near future. The Pagan Otherworld will be one of the new range which will also include a dragon, unicorn and an angel.

All the Best of Europe customers who purchase the Courtney Davis range of goods will be given a special promotional decal to put on their shop window and the shop details will be on the Best of Europe website for new customers to obtain shop address details
